Account & Settings > Recommendation Notifications

LinkedIn notifies your network automatically when you recommend a service provider.

Sending

When you recommend a service provider, LinkedIn can automatically notify your connections.

How should LinkedIn update your connections?

- Update my connections when I make a recommendation.
- Don't send automatic updates.

Receiving

When your connections recommend a service provider, LinkedIn will notify you.

How would you like to receive these updates from your connections?

- Send them via email (updates are sent in batches, approximately once a week).
- I'll read them on the LinkedIn web site (don't send them via email).
